

ASSA ABLOY EMS&OEM GROUP 2015 COURSE OFFERINGS

ASSA ABLOY is proud to offer the following educational courses covering Adams Rite®, HES® and Securitron® product lines. These courses will educate the attendee on various levels of product/technical knowledge, selling techniques, site survey, and system design and product installation.

Magnetic Lock System Installation

- Course length: 4 hours
Class size limit: 16 students – 4 Students per Station
Credits offered: ALOA #AATP-AA008
ESA #11-3221 .4 credits
Attendees: Locksmiths, Installers, Access Control technicians, sales technicians
Content balance: 40% instructional - 60% hands-on learning
Prerequisites: Basic Low Voltage Electricity for Installers

Course Description:

This course offers a hands-on installation of several of the most common magnetic locking systems, including surface and concealed magnetic locks, touch sense devices, digital keypads, motion sensors and emergency exit buttons. With instructional and hands-on exercises covering the following subjects:

- Purpose of electric locking system
- Basic Code Requirements
- Maglock – Types and Applications
- Walk through techniques – Frame Identification
- Magnetic locking system component selection
- Brackets and accessories
- System layout and hardware schedule forms
- Common errors, tips and techniques
- Hands – On – Install, Programming & Testing

Note: This class requires a classroom style configuration for table-top hands-on work space for all participants. Access to multiple electronic outlets is required. Extension cords to be provided by trainer.

To learn more about the training classes offered, please contact: training@hesinnovations.com.

Russ Anderson – East of the Mississippi
623-582-4626 ext 7153 (office)

Rodger Schmidt – West of the Mississippi
480-815-8242 (cell)